Rocky Horror Guide

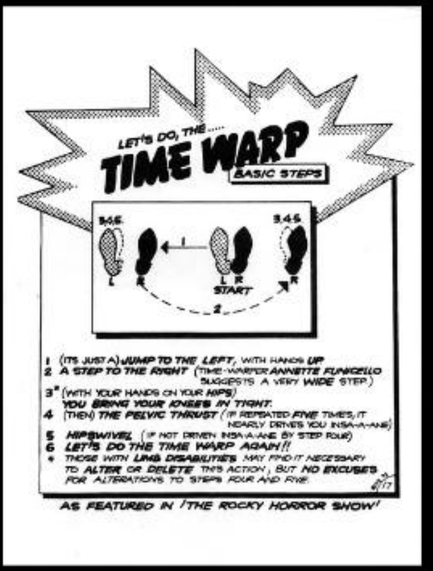

Campbell Smith

iNSPiRATioN

POSTER

Join us on a strange journey
HOW STRANGE?
I would like, if I may to take you

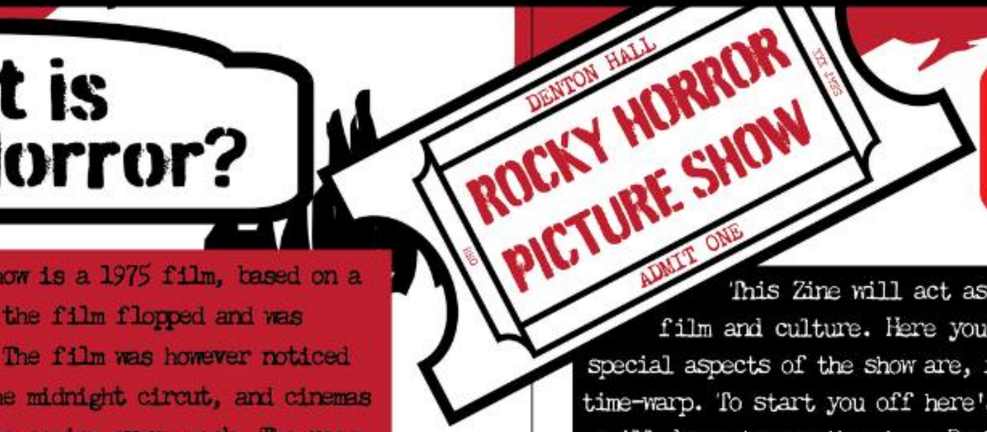

FRONT COVER

What is Rocky Horror?

The Rocky Horror Picture Show is a 1975 film, based on a Play. Upon intial realease the film flopped and was pulled on opening weekend. The film was however noticed for potential in running the midnight circut, and cinemas noted it was the same people coming every week. The reoccuring audience goers started to develop a culture and rules for watching the film, bringing in different elements to make the film more interactive, these include Dancing, Dressing up, Props, and Callbacks.

This culture around the film was inspired by it's themes, one of non-conformity, sexuality, gender, madness, and love, themes which often struck a cord with it's audience, mostly made up of teens, queer people, people of colour, and those who just never felt like they fit in. Now Rocky Horror Picture Show is the longest running theatrical release in history.

Creative Brief

This Zine will act as a 'Virgin's guide for neewcomers to the film and culture. Here you will be taken through what some of the special aspects of the show are, from callbacks, to props, and even how to time-warp. To start you off here's your short guide to terms, and the way you'll dress to see the show. Rocky Horror is the first cult class films, and it's significance to the queer community is undeniable, being a lot of older genrations first time seeing explicit sexuality, and telling previously ignored audiences that they are seen.

Terms

Rocky has a few labels for the audience you'll quickly soon encounter.

'Virgin', refers to a person who has never seen the Rocky Horror Picture Show in any shape or form.

'Masturbater', refers to a person who has seen the film, but hasn't attended a theatrical showing.

'Slut', refers to a person who has seen the film in theaters before. (And propbably will again)

What to Wear

Whilst there is no inherent dress code most people will dress up, there's no right or wrong way to dress for Rocky but the typical theme is 'Fishnets'. Rocky outfits tend to be a little cheeky, show off a bit of skin, and encourage you to blur the lines of sexuality and gender. If you can't think of what to wear you can always even dress like one of the main characters.

SPREAd i

SLUT ASSHOLE

ASSHOLE SLUT

SLUT ASSHOLE

ASSHOLE SLUT

SLUT ASSHOLE

ASSHOLE SLUT

SLUT ASSHOLE

Callbacks

Throughout the film callbacks may occur,

Callbacks are a quintesential part of the Rocky Horror Picture Show's audience participation.

it's when an audience member, or multiple, may yell over the line spoken, or ask the characters a question, maybe even just slinging an insult at the characters.

An easy callback for virgins to know is 'Slut' and 'Asshole'. When you hear 'Janet Weiss', you'll yell 'SLUT!', and when you hear 'Brad Majors', you'll yell 'ASSHOLE!'.

SPREAd 2

Props

THE GLOVE

When Frank n Furter Snaps his glove, you snap yours too !

PARTY HAT

To celebrate Rocky's birthday with the rest of the group strap on your party hat too.

PLAYING CARDS

When Frank sings 'Cards for Sorrow! Cards for Pain!' toss your playing cards in the air.

RICE

Join the wedding in tossing your rice in the air as the bride and groom pass.

WATER GUN

As it rains spray your gun in the air!

NEWSPAPER

Shelter from the rain like Janet, with this filmsy newspaper!

L R It's Just a Jump to The Left

Put your Hands on your Hips

But it's the pelvic Thrust

LET'S DO THE

And then a Step to the Right L R

You Bring your knees in Tight

That Really Drives you Insane

TIME WARP

AGAIN

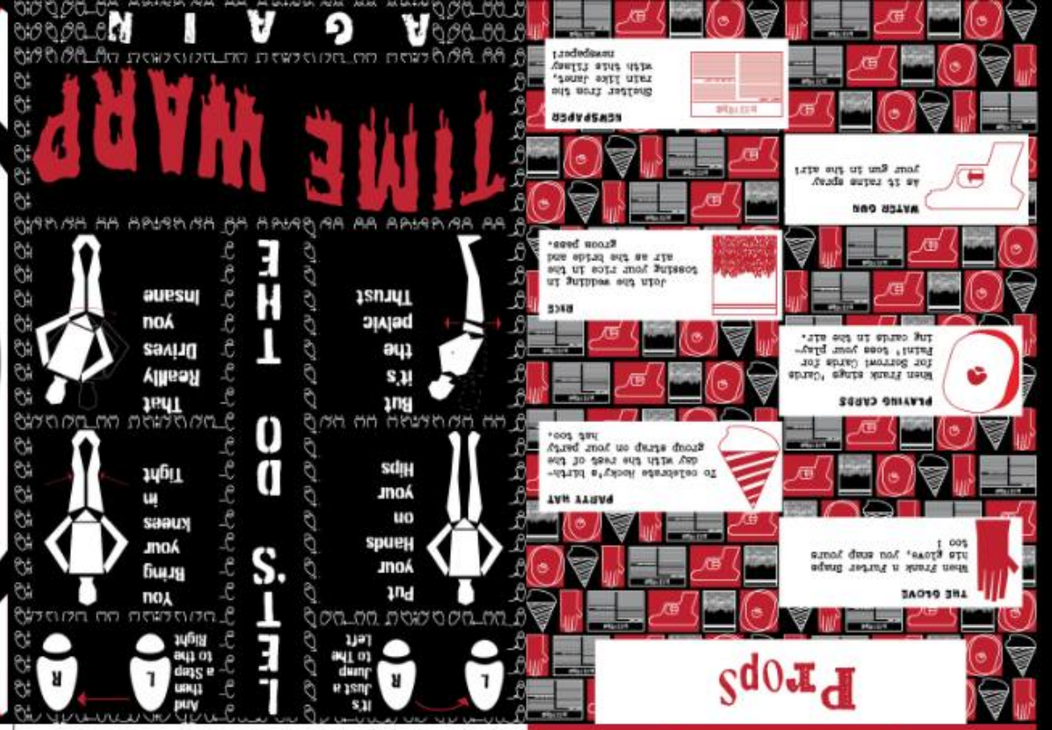

SPREAD 3

BACK COVER

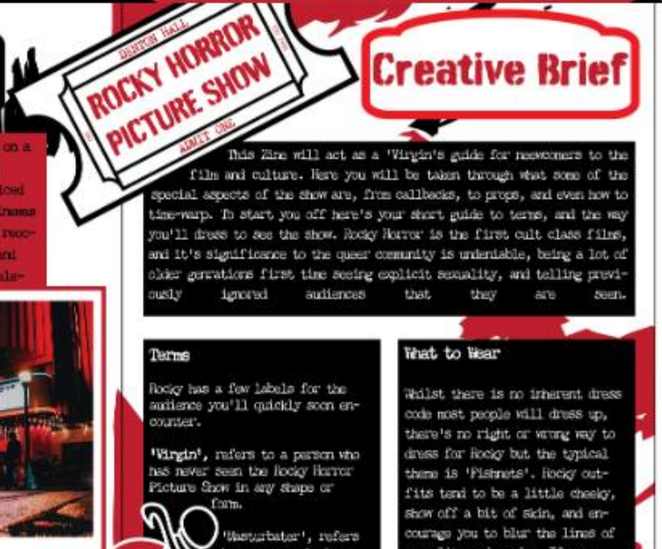

What is Rocky Horror?

The Rocky Horror Picture Show is a 1975 film, based on a Play. Upon initial release the film flopped and was pulled on opening weekend. The film was however noticed for potential in running the midnight circuit, and cinemas noted it was the same people coming every week. The reoccurring audience goers started to develop a culture and rules for watching the film, bringing in different elements to make the film more interactive, these include Dancing, Dressing up, Props, and Callbacks.

This culture around the film was inspired by it's themes, one of non-conformity, sexuality, gender, sadness, and love, themes which often struck a cord with it's audience, mostly made up of teens, queer people, people of colour, and those who just never felt like they fit in. How Rocky Horror Picture Show is the longest running theatrical release in history.

Creative Brief

This Zine will act as a 'Virgin's guide for newcomers to the film and culture. Here you will be taken through what some of the special aspects of the show are, from callbacks, to props, and even how to time-warp. To start you off here's your short guide to terms, and the way you'll dress to see the show. Rocky Horror is the first cult class films, and it's significance to the queer community is undeniable, being a lot of older generations first time seeing explicit sexuality, and telling previously ignored audiences that they are seen.

Terms

Rocky has a few labels for the audience you'll quickly soon encounter.

'Virgin', refers to a person who has never seen the Rocky Horror Picture Show in any shape or form.

'Wannabe', refers to a person who has seen the film, but hasn't attended a theatrical showing.

'Slut', refers to a person who has seen the film in theaters before. (And probably will again.)

What to Wear

Whilst there is no inherent dress code most people will dress up, there's no right or wrong way to dress for Rocky but the typical theme is 'Fishnets'. Rocky outfits tend to be a little cheeky, show off a bit of skin, and encourage you to blur the lines of sexuality and gender. If you can't think of what to wear you can always even like one of the main characters.

SLUT ASSHOLE
ASSHOLE SLUT
SLUT ASSHOLE
ASSHOLE SLUT
SLUT ASSHOLE
ASSHOLE SLUT
SLUT ASSHOLE

Callbacks

Throughout the film callbacks may occur,

Callbacks are a quintessential part of the Rocky Horror Picture Show's audience participation.

it's when an audience member, or multiple, may yell over the line spoken, or ask the characters a question, maybe even just slinging an insult at the characters.

An easy callback for virgins to know is 'Slut' and 'Asshole'. When you hear 'Janet Weiss', you'll yell 'SLUT!', and when you hear 'Brad Majors', you'll yell 'ASSHOLE!'.

ROCKY HORROR